Shri P.D.Dalvi for the petitioner

CORAM; A.P.DESHPANDE,J.

DTAED: 10TH JULY, 2007.

P.C.

1. The present apppellants are plaintiff who instituted a suit for declaration, partition and separate possession against the defendants. The trial court has dismissed the suit by holding that the plaintiffs have no right to the property owned and possessed by the defendant as the plaintiffs are not co-owners of the property. It is also held that the plaintiff's and the defendant's properties were already partitioned and the plaintiff has failed to establish any right, title or interest in the suit properties. The judgment and decree of the trial court has been confirmed by the first appellate court by dismissing the regular civil appeal filed by the present appellants. Perused the judgment and decree impugned in this appeal. It does not call for any interference. No substantial question of law is involved. Hence S.A. is summmarily dismissed.
